SENATE MAY FORCE DENTIST DIES WELLINGTON OUT.

Maryland Man's Comment on the President Severely Condemned.

Expulsion from State! Union League Club Is Hailed with Delight

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12 .- When Congrees meets in December an effort will made to expel George L. Wellington, of Maryland, from the United States Senate. If the feeling at that time re-garding his outbreak against President strated his "unitness to associate with McKinley is what it is now there seems loyal citizens and right-minded men to be little reason for doubting that he and I do not think this is just the time to say anything bad. I despise the man. I have no use for him, and there is no reason for my saying anything. I am totally indifferent in the matter."

Makes No Disclaimer.

Since these remarkable words, uttered at a time when the entire world was anxiously awaiting the news from Buffalo, have been widely published Senator Wellington has put in no disclaimer and has not repudlated the interview. On the contrary, he is said to have made similar remarks at other times and in public places. The resolution by which the Union League, of Maryland, purged liself of him declares that he has made "repeated and public expressions of "repeated and public expressions of "repeated and public expressions of still the head."

to be little reason for doubting that he will be oursel.

Officials here do not hesitate to say that Wellington's political career should be cut short, and that he should not be permitted to serve until the end of his term in 1962. The Senators who have expressed themselves on the subject unhesitatingly declare in favor of his expulsion.

Expression from Club.

Politicians and government attaches heard with unfeigned delight this morning of the expulsion of Wellington from the Union League, of Maryland. They see in this a forecast of the action of the Senator Wellington's most widely quoted remark and the one on which his expulsion from the Union League was based, was made last Saturday which the sealed for an avareasion.

The Old Enmit's.

Senator Wellington's enmity for McKinley date to the time when the Maryland made his strong fixing against imperialism, a fight so strong that it caused Wellington to appear on the stump for Bryan.
